March 11th.—A general meeting of the Brotherhood of Engineers, in which all the local Brotherhoods were represented, was held to-day. The Chicago, Burlington and Quincy strike, and the manner in which it is being conducted, were approved. The moral and financial support of all Lodges represented was pledged. As to the matter of a strike on the lines centering in Pittsburg, nothing whatever was said, and several delegates, when spoken to, said nothing was further when spoken to, said nothing was further from their minds.

TERRIBLE STORM.

urious storm of wind, accompanied sucsessively by rain, snow, hail and sleet, broke over the Atlantic coast in this section early on Sunday evening. It traveled in a northeasterly direction, as is evidenced by with Washington, then with Baltimore and lastly with Philadelphia. It is safe to say that no such destructive storm to the telegraph wires has been experienced in many years. Not one single wire can be used to Philadelphia, and the elegraph facilities between that city and New York are probably unequaled in any imilar distance in any other country For the first time in years the daily weather report has failed. AS OTHERS SEE US. What They Say of the Effort to Purify

The outrageous frauds perpetrated at the recent Republican primaries in Sacramento have given rise to great indignation in the party, and an organized revolt has been made against the boss-made ticket. CHIEF FEATURES OF RANDALL'S TARIFF BILL.

The California Five Per Cent. Bill Probably Buried for the Session-Timber-Cutters.

[SPECIAL DISPATCHES TO THE RECORD-UNION.]

SCIENCE IN TARIFF. The Guiding Principles in Randall's Tariff WASHINGTON, March 11th .- Randall has apleted his tariff bill, and will introduce t in the House to-morrow. In explanation of its terms and scope, he makes the fol-

The bill repeals the internal tax on to-bacco and fruit brandies. It also repeals the license tax on wholesale and retail liquor-dealers, leaving them, as recommended by Jefferson, so that "State authorities might adopt them." It makes alcohol used in the arts free, and reduces the tax on whisky to fifty cents per gallon.

The bill is a careful and complete revision of the whole tariff system. It carries o the free list a large number of articles now paying duties and which enter into consumption either as raw material or otherwise, and in the production of which there is no injurious competition between this and other countries. In the revision of the tariff the aim has been to intelligently apply consistent principles to all branches of industry, and in so doing our industrial system has been considered as a whole, and differing from other industrial systems in the important fact that LABOR IN THIS COUNTRY Receives a larger share of the annual products of labor and capital combined than in any other country. This important advantage to the labor interests of the United States the bill aims to preserve throughout the wholes throughout the whole. At the same time "in fairness to all interests," as stated in the Chicago platform,"to reduce and equalize" the duties on imports. The principles applied to a revision of the tariff in this

FEATURES OF THE BILL. First-That the difference in the cost o oducing commodities in this and other ountries where there is no climatic or other natural causes why they cannot be produced abundantly, has in this country been studied and everywhere adhered to as the cardinal principle to be enforced in any revision of the tariff. In such a scheme all the industries, of course, should stand on an equal footing. and in no instance should the powers of the Government be used to elevate one above another. In other words, our industrial system must be considered as a whole, in which all who participate in it share its benefits, whether they are engaged in one industry or in another. One principle of great importance has been kept constantly in view, and that is, that line which marks the difference in the cost of producing commodities here and abroad n other words, the line of fair compet tion-is always and necessarily above the to reduce the duties on any commodity below the line of difference in cost, which, as stated, is the line of even competition until the line of maximum revenue is passed, necessarily increases the revenues On the contrary, to raise duties from the ine of maximum revenue, by lessening imrtations, reduces revenues. This principle has been kept in view throughout the bill in the adjustment of duties. To determine just where the line of difference in cost falls is, of course, in many instances, difficult, but it may be safely assumed that when importations is any line of commodities are large and in creasing, and no good reason appearing why the things cannot as well be produced here, that euch duties are below the cost line, and that the advantage is with th foreign producer. If the production in the line is diminished, or suspended altogether, in this country, it becomes propositive that the advantage is too great to e overcome without a readjustment of the In such cases (embracing, however, bu ew articles) there has been no hesitancy in preparing this bill to raise duties so as to permit these industries to take their place reast with others in the country where mportations are light and increasing. may consistently be assumed that the duties are quite high enough, and in many cases may be safely reduced, and in case the industry is of such nature as to permit trusts and combinations of any kind to raise prices above the level of prices or profits in other industries, then i becomes important that the cost lin should be closely adhered to, and that has been the aim in this bill in regard to indus tries where trusts or combinations are supposed to have such power. It is less in portant, of course, to apply this rule rigidly where prices are regulated through free competition. In such cases, under wellknown economic principles, the tendency is always to a general level in profits, wages and prices in any industrial system

In working out the details of the bill under these principles, the aim has been to pare closely and adjust carefully the differ ent schedules, with the object always i view to lower the duties wherever possib THE ESTIMATED REDUCTIONS Uuder this bill will be: On internal taxa-

From indications, there will be lively times. The point of no quorum was raised when McKenna's motion was carried by a viva voce vote, and considerable time was wasted in polling the House. Holman of Indiana, who was fighting for delay, succeeded in getting a call for the ayes and noes, which consumed half an hour's time. By a vote of 127 to 75, Mc-Kenna's motion was adopted. and an inquest will be held to-morrow What Constitutes a Republican Ticket?

EDS. RECORD-UNION: I have read a great deal in an evening paper concerning the Republican ticket; I listened with delight to young Brusie's speech concerning the duty of Republicans in this Presidential year; I have heard old party men, like hon-ored and renowned Pitt Eldred, tell Re-publicans to take their medicine and accept a defeat, no matter how accomplished, and it is amusing and likewise amazing to me to see the effect of these remarks upon a few conservative old Republicans. The Republican ticket! What Republican ticket? Why the ticket born of fraud, cradled in corruption, and now grown by lying, hypocrisy and trickery. Because Rhoads, the boss, and Daroux and Roeder, his lieutenants, have met in convention with their fellows and have promulgated to the citizens of Sacramento a ticket omposed of men acceptable to them, is his to be called a Republican ticket?

Because Jas. Dunnigan, Richard Corsaw, H. Eldred and others of their ilk have put six names upon a ticket, based on ballot-box stuffing and crime, does that give them the right to exclude all decent cititens, all men of social and business posi-ions, from Republican councils, and to all their six names the Republican ticket? f the men I have named have the right to nominate a ticket, defying the wishes and gnoring the entreaties of the respectable celement of the party, they have no right to call that ticket the Republican ticket. If the Republican party of Sacramento is to consist of A. J. Rhoads, Bart Cavanaugh, James Dunnigan, Frank Daroux and the other managers, to the exclusion of such men as A. A. Van Voorhies, John McNeill, W. H. Beatty, C. T. Wheeler and the scores of other respectable and taxpaying citizens, then perish the Republican party.

Young Republican.

Importation of Election Roughs.

Official information was received vesterday from San Francisco, that the ballot-box stuffing bosses of Sacramento, fearing the active efforts of self-respecting Republicans and Democrats in defense of the ballot-box would secure a fair election to-morrow, and thereby insure the ignominious overthrow f the infamous political ring, have called upon their ally, Boss Buckley, of San Francisco, for a brigade of thugs and bulldozers to assist them. The first detachment of the delectable crew came up last night on the 8 o'clock train, numbering about twenty. Among them are "Big Necked" Smith and Jimmy Dwyer, wellknown in this city from previous similar visits, when "large majorities" were scored in the First and Second Wards. The RECORD-UNION will endeavor to publish a st of the entire crew, in time for use tohorrow, so that the police and Deputy heriffs may know them. And it is to be oped, that as fast as one of the gang appear within 100 feet of the polls, they will be given secure accommodations behind the bars of the city jail, as well as every ocal boss or ward striker, who, in any anner seeks to interfere with the election ights of the people. If a lot of imported u'lies and stuffers are necessary to carry out the plans of the disreputable ring, then

self-respecting man can vote the ticket

One of the methods being put forth in ertain quarters, for the defeat of Tim Lee, for Chief of Police, is the statement that Mr. Lee had visited the RECORD-UNION office and made a written statement that if elected he would be a regular three-story Puritan, to wit: that he would close all games in Sacramento; that he would ose all saloons at 12 o'clock each night and would enforce the Sunday law. This s correct with the slight exceptions that Mr. Lee has never visited this office, nor signed any promise; there is no law by which saloons can be closed at 12 o'clock rany other hour, and lastly there are no unday laws to enforce.

Exasperated by Boss Rule. Respectable Republicans in Sacramento have become exasperated with the boss rule of ward politicians in that city, and on Thursday night had a large mass meeting in condemnation of certain acts in connection with the recent Convention for nomnating municipal officers. A Republican nomination means election in that city, and the "bosses" have heretofore nominated their men without regard to the wishes of the voting masses. We are glad to see the opposition manifested, and hope t will succeed in overthrowing such disreputable rule. This thing of packing Conventions in the interest of a few men who would be ignored by the tax-payers has been carried to a disgraceful extent all over California. The only way to prevent is for the tax-paying voters to take part in the nominations. Or they can, as a last resort, combine against such nominees at the polls on election day .- Oroville Mercury.

PUBLICAN PAPER.

Says the New York Herald . The function of an independent journal is to criticise wherever criticism is needed, and to commend wherever commendation is merited Above all political, party or personal consider ations it holds the welfare of the public and the interests of the people.

Precisely. The party organ knows party first and the people next. It hears the crack of the party whip first and the voice of public opinion last. It obeys the latter only when the former permits. Such loyalty to party is simply slavery. We be lieve in the Republican party; that it i the party of high purpose, honorable ambitions, and lofty aims, and that its principles represent the purest democracy and the most exalted form of true Republicanism. When the control of that party in any locality falls into the hands of vicious men who are for it only for what they can make out of it; when its committee representatives are chosen year in and vear out from the most repulsive walks of life; when its agents stuff ballot-boxes; when they crouch beneath tables and alter tickets as drawn from the ballot-box; when they call caucuses for 400 or 500 voters in the back rooms of saloons not capable of RECORD-UNION, nor none of the fair-dealholding fifty men; when they refuse to exhibit the ballot-box before beginning a primary election; when, as they did at the Republican primary, slip in fraudulent ballots by fives and sixes in a bunch while the voting goes on; when they surround the polls with a crowd of roughs and strikers to intimidate and disgust voters; when in convention they refuse to trust to a roll call. and to put the ayes and noes on record; when they seat delegates who themselves declare they were chosen by fraud and corruption and are not entitled to their seats; when they perpetuate themselves by the basest of methods in the party committees; when they "stuff" ballotboxes at general and primary elections; when they refuse valid challenges; when they vote dead men and non-residents: when they dictate what offices the people shall have and if a protest is entered ask: "What are you going to do about it, you

-?" When they are repudiated by decency, condemned by the law and abhorred by self-respecting men; when they threaten all who resist them with business punishment and persona bulldozing; when they openly boast that they will crush those who oppose them; when they import hired ruffians and beetle-browed "toughs" from San Fran cisco, as they did yesterday and are nov doing, to cow and intimidate citizens of Sacramento at the polls; when they raise aspire to office, as they have in this contest through their hireling sheet when they assume to insure nomination for money and election for more-the independent Republican press, of which the RECORD-UNION is proud to be one, owes it to party, to people and to self-respect t protest with all the vigor it can command Under such prostitution of its machinery any party must go down. such a house cleaning as will expel the vicious influences and recall to the party ranks the thousands who have, because these crimes, left it, or in disgust ceased to exercise the right of franchise. All day yesterday the air of the city was blue with statements circulated with great glee by the bosses, that to-day the RECORD-UNION would "fall down;" that the bosses and their gang had coerced in and cowed it to their ends. One of the crowd of roughs arose in the ring Central Committee Saturday night, and stated that the RECORD-UNION would "flop'

TH POLICE DEPARTMENT.

It is notorious, undenied and undeniable that the police department is made the tool of the worst elements known in political activity. As a matter of fact in all well governed cities the police departments are free from boss rule. Men are retained during good behavior, and removed only for cause; they are kept on the force for competency and the public good, not to reward political servitors or give bosses the distributin patronage. In this city it is notorious that the Chinese totteries, the tan games and the Chinese houses of prostitution pay a stated sum monthly to paralyze the hands and blind the eyes of the ing ill you hear of any man to-day or topolice force. We never will have true prosperity here until lawlessness is put under foot and boss rule overthrown.

CANDIDATES AND PERSONALITIES.

A correspondent asks: "What can you say against Mr. Elkus?" The correspondent mistakes the purpose and principle of honorable debate. Neither the RECORD-UNION, nor, probably, any Republican in Sacramento, has any warfare to make upon Mr. Elkus. It is not essential to the to purge itself of the shame of such pracestablishment of a principle that a candidate upon an opposing ticket be assailed. Mr. Elkus is a highly reputable citizen, whom under ordinary circumstances the Republicans of Sacramento could cordially support. He is an old-time merchant, capable and intelligent. The difficulty is that this gentleman cannot be supported without giving influences that put him forward, to cover with the cloak of his good character their nfamous designs. Behind him they propose to continue to "boss" this city. In is name they hope to deal a blow to reform from which it will not recover. Th ing Republicans for whom it ventures to speak, assail Mr. Louis Elkus, for his standing forbids it. But they do deplore the fact that he has permitted himself t be put before the people as a shield to the ring that has sworn to rule or ruin the Republican party in Sacramento.

By uplifting his name they hope to coneal their cloven feet. From behind his haracter they are striving to stab the effort j of the local party machinery. o give law-abiding, self-respecting men a chance to be politically free. Principle is the great end in this contest for which we lo battle, not men. To that end a mass meeting of protesting Republicans was held at the Pavilion on Thursday evening, March 8, 1888, at which an Executive Committee of twentysix was appointed and charged with the dorsement to vicious and demoralizing in- duty of nominating a ticket, composed either of Republicans exclusively, or of Republicans and Democrats, which the citizens of Sacramento might support in the interests of good government.

Under these circumstances we have concluded that our best course is to indorse the Democratic ticket as a whole, and we do therefore cordially recommend the Republicans of Sacramento to vote for the ticket headed by H. One of the Old Line Republicans Speaks Out His Mind. EDS. RECORD-UNION: It is the duty of every Republican to see to it that his party is kept free from bossism, from fraud and corruption. It is his further duty to punish the bold, bad men who, in violation of their duty, seize the reins of power in the Republican party by means of fraudulent primaries and Conventions, and to prevent such frauds from being successful, and therefore exceedingly dangerous.

Every Republican admits that the ticket ominated by the bosses last Monday night is the representative solely of the bosses and the corrupt ring who have disgraced their party and city so long.

Every Republican admits that the Fourth Ward primary was a horrid fraud, and a libel on decent politics; and that the Convention, by indorsing such fraud at the dictation of the ring, made themselves parties to the fraud, and absolved all Republicans from obligation to support the What, then, should Republicans do to The answer is obvious. Do that which the mass meeting at the Pavilion resolved upon, viz: defeat the Rhoads-Roeder-Daroux ticket. There is but one way to do that, and that is to vote for the ticket headed by H. C. Wolf, and called the Democratic ticket. To vote for a third ticket would be idle play-would make the protest of honest depublicans a farce and insure the success of the ring. The only argument used by the advocates of the ring is that we are oting for Democrats.

Well, suppose we are? What harm is there in so doing in municipal affairs? An nonest Democrat, fairly nominated, is better than a Republican owing his nomination to the most wicked frauds and corrupt pargains. An honest Democrat withou any collar on his neck, is better than a Republican labeled "Frank Rhoads' property," and who submissively wears the collar of servitude to corrupt bosses.

The only way to punish these tricksters to prevent their making money out of heir nefarious business; and to do that, the ticket by them nominated must be beaten. When aspiring men learn that Republican nominations given them by oosses through fraud are worthless, then cheating at primaries and in conventions will not be profitable, and the bosses

Some Opponents of Reform Described.

AST SATURDAY EVENING THE M Clatchy boys threw off the mask they have been wearing since the primary, and ranged themselves on the side of the ring and the osses. This has been expected from the date when they sent their partner into the Third Ward caucus and primary to labor for the boss

The reason for this action of the McClatchy boys is two-fold, as given, I understand, by the McClatchy boy who claims to managing editor, and is, first, because they must oppose the RECORD-UNION, no matter whether right or wrong; second, because "they don't like that tchman Weil anyway, for he turned Charley's There is undoubtedly another reason, which can be guessed, as to why the McClatchy boys came down off the fence and landed on the side of the corrupt ring, that by most shameless frauds seeks to perpetuate its power. The voters of Sacramento will not pay much attention to what the McClatchy boys say, for they and their paper are too well known. It is disgraceful to see men owning a newspaper use it in favor of fraud and against re form. These McClatchy boys have done harm enough to Sacramento, without now seeking to turn the city over entirely to the Rhoads Daroux-Roeder crowd of politicians. They always bring their private grievances into play and never regard the good of the city as their guiding star. Their advice will not be heeded by Republicans to-morrow.

Literary Entertainment.

A pleasing entertainment was given on Saturday night by the members of the Bainbridge Normal Literary Society. The programme consisted of vocal and instrumental music, recitations, and the trial of a breach of promise case, entitled "Polly Ann Stephenhysen vs. Obediah Smith."

The participants were students at the Bainth that he saw through the trick in time to save his money and his bridge Business College, and J. C. Bainbridge acted as Judge. The plaintiff was Fred. Foote, a young man of the school, who, by the use of a great deal of paint and powder, a wig, dress and other apparel generally worn by ladies, had managed to give himself quite a feminine appearance.

The defendant, Charles Luce, also a young man of the school, was supposed to e a dandy of Sacramento, who in the hope f gaining wealth, had visited the plaintiff at her father's farm in Yolo county, but finding the father not so well off as he had During the argument, plaintiff's counsel produced such an effect upon both plaintiff and defendant that they flew to each other and embraced, vowing eternal love and The literary society has been running for about a month, and the scholars are greatly interested in it. The roll of membership is constantly increasing and each Saturday night's entertainment brings new visitors.

Lysle's Sentence.

William Lysle appeared before Judge Buckley, in the Police Court, on Saturday, to receive his sentence for having stolen a case of surgical instruments from the office of Dr. G. L. Simmons, Jr., about two weeks ago. He pleaded guilty to the charge on Friday and put in a plea to the Court that he was not accountable for his action because he was under the influence of liquors, which had a particularly demoralizing effect upon him on account of injuries he had received several years ago. The Judge evidently thought it would be a good idea to place him beyond temptation for a while and or-dered him to pay a fine of $70 or remain seventy days in jail. He will probably accept the latter alternative for financial rea-

Turner Masquerade.

The nineteenth annual masquerade ball of the Sacramento Turn, Verein, which will take place on Thursday night next, bids fair to be one of the most enjoyable social events of the season. The new pavilion has been handsomely decorated for the occasion, and all openings in the upper part of the building have been carefully closed to avoid drafts and make the hall comfortably warm. The spacious building will be illuminated, and when the merry maskers arrive in their rich and grotesque costumes the scene will be a grand one. The valuable prizes to be awarded are on exhibition at 629 J street.

A vote for either Huntoon or Todd is a vote to turn the Paid Fire Department over to the bosses as a political machine.

Verdict, the "Bosses Must Go." The deepest interest is being taken by all classes of citizens in the coming city election, and scarcely anything else is talked of upon the streets. Since the action of the Independent Republican Committee, the opinion seems to be almost universal that the fraudulent practices of the bosses must cease, and that on Tuesday the iniquity will be literally buried beneath the votes of the outraged rank and file of the Repub-

Reporters of the RECORD-UNION went city on Saturday afternoon and evening have their names in print, as they are estly duty when a square chance is offered to put an end to the corrupt practices which have been a disgrace to the city, to do all they can to accomplish that result, and that on election day their votes will be cast for that purpose. The majority of those spoken to were Republicans, who have al-ways voted that ticket. They say that they are not now going to vote against the Republican party, but that they are going to east their ballots to punish those who, by their acts, have brought disgrace upon that party. If it is necessary, in order to accomplish this end, to vote for some Demo-crats, they propose to do it, especially as the Democratic Convention placed none out good names upon their ticket.

THE BUSINESS MEN. Said a prominent J-street merchant: do not usually take any part in politics, further than to cast my vote, but I believe the time has come when the decent element in the Republican party should have some-thing to say in the management of the party. The business men of the city generally seem to have made up their minds that this is the right time to act, and I am satisfied that if we want good men to fill our city offices, men who are not under the influences of 'bosses,' we must take a hand in this election.'

There is very little chance of success of the bosses," said a Republican politician. "I never knew a cause to win in this city yet where such unblushing frauds were be-

They all understand that the scheme will be to trade votes for Fire Comioner, but they also understand that the independents are so sure of adminis-tering punishment that there is no sense in trading. I never voted anything but a Republican ticket before, but I don't see where politics comes in at this election, anyhow. What we want is first to 'sit down' on ballot-box stuffing and next to have good men in office. When I have to make a choice between the influences now perating upon the community I know where I ought to stand, and I shall be at

SULLIVAN-MITCHELL. Boston's Pride Fails to Knock Out the Plucky English Dude.

CHANTILLY, March 11th .- The Sullivan Mitchell fight, which took place on the training grounds of Baron Rothschild at Crevil, came to an end after thirty-nine

It was clear after twenty minutes' fight-ing that years of dissipated, brutal life had sapped the once astonishing powers of the American champion. He could not close with the wiry Englishman, and his efforts to force the fighting weakened him considerably. At the end of the battle Sallivan cried with mortification at his failure to make good the oath against Mitchell. the ordinary kinds, and cannot be sold in settion with the multitude of low-test, weight alum or phosphate powders. Sold van forcing the fighting and making one or two powerful rushes. Sullivan's blow was loft hander just to the left of a heavy left-hander just to the left of Mitchell's jaw. The latter was dazed, but soon got in a light return on Sullivan's chest. Then he sparred cautiously, warding off two or three of Sullivan's leads.

A CRUSHER. Finally Sullivan got angry and rushed in close, his left hand fell in short, Mitchell dodging, but his big right fist crashed against the unlucky Englishman's head and the Londoner fell in a heap over and the Londoner fell in a heap over toward the ropes in his corner.

After half a minute or so Mitchell was up again, sponged off, and in the ring. Sullivan soon followed. This time Mitchell fought shy, retreating from one part of the ring to another. Sullivan's fierce rush was too much for him, however, and the two closed. The first blow caught Mitchell on the chest and Mitchell staggered as if he on the chest and Mitchell staggered as if he had been hit by a pile-driver. He made a feeble effort to parry, then to run away, but another blow on the head from Sulli-van, a deadly right-hander, laid him flat on the turf near the middle of the ring.

His seconds lifted him over to his corner, where a little sponging brought him to in the minute. The pace was too fast for the Englishman, but it was also beginning to tell on the greatest of short distance sluggers. Sullivan was red in the face, and the cool, defensive strategy of his antagonist ruffled the big bully's temper. Still everything looked rose-hued to his friends. A WAITING BATTLE.

From the beginning of the third round Mitchell fought a waiting battle, running all over the ring with Sullivan bounding after nim and getting in an occasional ineffective low. The American champion at last made erate rush, broke down the Englishman's defense, and sent him sprawling to the ground with a right-hand blow in the face. Sullivan seemed to have hurt his hand a little in this last rush, and Mitchell, though badly battered, was far from being knocked out. Sullivan was pushing him-self hard, and seemed to feel the strain. In the fourth round Mitchell squirmed and dodged for several minutes before Sullivan could close on him. When he did reach the Englishman his blows fell lightly, and though Mitchell went down in the last rush, he fell more in the tussle

In the fifth and sixth rounds he took to he tactics that Smith had used. Sullivan harged again and again, but every time the Londoner got away. Once, when he was cornered, he dropped to the ground on one hand and one knee, which is a fall by the London ring rules. Sullivan had come nearly striking him as he dropped, and the referee cautioned both men about making or causing a foul stroke. In the next three rounds Sullivan kept up his ineffectual chase after the fleet-footed Englishman. Mitchell got off without any damage to speak of, and even planked his fist two or three times on Sullivan's face. SULLIVAN CHILLED BY THE RAIN. In the tenth round there was a steady oour of rain, which chilled Sullivan, who began to shake with ague. He kept began to shake with ague. He kept pluckily on, however, pounding through the mud after his opponent, but falling shorter and shorter on each rush, and nothing better than a draw was looked for. Mitchell's backers hoped now that their man might outlast the American and win he championship. From the tenth to the thirty-second round Sullivan was shivering all over, and Mitchell could do nothing. The thirtyecond round lasted twenty-seven minutes and the thirty-fifth fifteen minutes. Both en were weak, and could no longer hit out from the shoulder. After half an hour's fighting in the last ound Mitchell's second broke into the ring and called out that the men had enough. Make it a draw," he urged. The principals readily agreed to stop and shook hands. Sullivan cried with rage and chagrin, and his backers folded up their flags, the most heartsore set of sportsmen that has ever traveled 3,000 miles to see a good iternational fight. Mitchell was badly bruised. There was a big lump on his jaw, his left eye was bunged up, and his body was a good deal battered. Sullivan was sick and worn out, but not much hurt. Both parties started for this city on the evening train. THE SLOGGERS IN JAIL. Paris, March 11th.-Mitchell and Sullivan and several friends were arrested while returning from the fight and taken to Senteis. At the jail Jake Kilrain managed to slip away. Sullivan and Mitchell were locked up, the others were released. CONDITION OF THE FIGHTERS. At midnight a Sun correspondent went to the jail with the doctor, whose services were sadly needed. The men were in separate cells, cold and damp, without food, and without covering on their beds. The French doctor, after examining them, threw his hands toward heaven and vowed that the men had been trying to murder each other. Mitchell was the worse off. He fell more than forty times during the fight. There was a sinking in among the ribs around toward the lower part of the back, which the doctor declared indicated an awful blow from something, and he had managed to break something inside him-One glance at Sullivan showed why he et go so many opportunities to knock Mitchell out, when a right-hander would have done it. His right hand was swelled to twice its natural size, and his left, which was broken in America, was in a bad condition. A tendon had been strained or broken, the doctor said, and the arm must be lanced and carefully tended.

LATER-BOTH RELEASED. London, March 12th-a. M.-Sullivan and Mitchell have been released from arrest and will arrive in London to-day.

IN GERMANY. Emperor William's Remains-Frederick III. and His Policy.

BERLIN, March 11th .- The body of Emperor William has been embalmed and ow lies in the State Hall of the palace. His features are placid, showing no sign of the pain he suffered. The body will be taken to the Cathedral, where it will lie in state, by Emperor Frederick's order. In ccordance with the desire of the deceased uler, the body is clad in the uniform of the First Regiment of the Guards and enveloped in a military cloak. The guard of honor will be relieved every six hours. On the palace the purple standard is fly ing at half-mast, but on the Crown Prince's alace is the imperial standard. The Dowager Empress Augusta last night received Prince Bismarck, who had previously passed some time by the side of the dead monarch. After the interview Bismarck visited Prince William. It has now been decided to remove the remains of the Emperor to the Cathedral to-night, where they will lie in state from noon to-morrow. The public will be admitted. THE DEAD MONARCH'S AILMENT. Berlin, March 11th.—Professor Hart-mann, assisted by Drs. Von Lauer, Leutpold and Thieman, conducted a postmor-tem examination of the Emperor's body. They found a calculus the size of a pigeon's egg, which must have caused intense pain. REMOVAL OF THE REMAINS 2 A. M.—The remains of the Emperor have been transferred to the Cathedral. The coffin was carried on the shoulders of ighteen soldiers of the Body-guard through the vestibule of the Palace, where it was handed to a number of non-commissioned officers.

The streets were lined with double rows of soldiers, every tenth man holding a torch. The funeral procession was headed by a squadron of cuirassieurs. These were ollowed by detachments of the toot-guards and a numerous train of servants of the Imperial household. Then came the offin. The Crown Prince and other Princes followed on foot, and the cortege closed with a detachment of cavalry. The throng on the streets was dense.

Which Was It, Bacon or Shakespeare The authorship of the dramatic productions attributed to the last of the above named is agitating literary circles to the very center, but affects the practical masses far less than the momentous question how to regain or preserve health, that essential of bodily and mental activity, business cess and the "pursuit of happiness. We can throw far more light on this latter subject than the most profound Shakespearean can on the question first pro-pounded. A Word About Catarrh.

"It is the mucous membrane, that wonderfu semi-fluid envelope surrounding the delicate issues of the air and food passages, that Catarrh makes its stronghold. Once established, it eat into the very vitals, and renders life but a long-drawn breath of misery and disease, dulling the sense of hearing, trammeling the powers of speech, destroying the faculty of smell, tainting the breath, and killing the refined pleasure of taste. Insidiously, by creeping on from a sim-ple cold in the head, it assaults the membrane-ous lining and envelops the bares esting ous lining and envelops the bones, eating through the delicate coats and causing inflammation, sloughing and death.
